THE KANSAS HERALD.
FRIDAY, DECEMBER 15, 1854.
AGENTS.
W. C. JONES, firm of Sloss & Jones, St. Louis, Mo., is our authorized agent for that city.
Dr. T. J. KINE, is our agent at De Kalb, Mo.
F. A. WEST, at St. Joseph is authorized to re-ceive subscriptions.
Mr. Wm. CRUME, is the traveling Agent for the Kansas Herald in Upper or North Western Missouri. We hope our friends in that section will lend him a help-ing hand in extending our circulation.
Agents.—Agents wanted to procure subscribers for the Kansas Herald. A lib-eral discount on the terms of subscription will be made. Postmasters every where are requested to act as agents, obtain sub-scribers, collect the money and report.
NEW GROCERY STORE.—F. & W. En-gleman, have just erected a commodious building on the Levee, and are in receipt of a very good assortment of all kinds of Family Groceries, Provisions, Boots and Shoes, &c, and are selling very low. Their house is fitted up in real city style, and of-fers great inducements to purchasers. See their advertisement and give them a call, you will find them obliging and accommo-dating.
LAND AGENCY AND GENERAL INTELLI-GENCE OFFICE.—Messrs. Diefendorf and Doyle, have opened an office in this place, and will attend to all business in their line, with promptness and punctuality. They are both eminently qualified for the busi-ness, and are gentlemen of strict integrity and business qualifications. See their ad-vertisement in another column.
Right Rev. Bishop MEORE, Catho-lic Bishop of this Territory, we learn con-templates erecting next summer, in Leaven-worth, a Male and Female Academy, Cath-edral, and buildings for residence, and in-tends making this place his head quarters. He has made a judicious choice, for Leav-enworth will, undoubtedly be the largest city in Kansas Territory.
JACKSONVILLE.—There will be a meeting in this city to-morrow, of the stockholders of the town of Jacksonville. It is intended to make arrangements for the immediate surveying of the town, and to organize the company. Two gentlemen are now ready to build a mill and Hotel. Several persons have spoken to us to buy shares, who will build. The town is bound to go ahead, and improve rapidly.
The Nebraska Palladium, at Bell-view, is the first paper actually printed in the Territory of Nebraska, and the Nebraska City News, published at Nebraska City, formerly old Fort Kearney, thirty-five miles below Bellevue, on the Missouri river, is the second. Rock Bottom, published at Florence, 16 miles above Bellevue, on the Mo. River, is the third.
STEAMBOATS ON THE KANSAS.—Messrs. Tutt & Baker, of Weston, have made ar-rangements for putting a light draught Boat, on the Kansas river, on the opening of navigation in the spring. They will have a boat just adapted to the trade. In ad-dition to this, we learn there is another com-pany of five enterprising gentlemen, who intend purchasing a steamer, for the same trade.
Mr. Park, of the Luminary, in his notes of observation, on a tour through the Territory, says:
"We have met very few Abolitionists in the Territory; but have heard of one rabid fellow, who scattered his poison along in the Kansas valley. A lady at Pottawattamie informed us that he had said 'he would as soon eat with a negro as with a white man—the negro is his brother and equal.' He spoke, too, against the institution of marriage, and said there was a sect [gang, it should be called] opposed to it, and to the bible! He made light of God's word—declared himself in favor of Woman's Rights, opposed to Catholics; was a Know-Nothing, &c. The gaunt-visaged disciple of Garrison made himself particularly obnoxious to the lady, who, in defending her views, concluded by telling him that such doctrines might be taught with success in the East, but they would not flourish among the Indians, and if he came back to poison the minds of their young men, they would hush him out of the country. We have since ascertained that he has been ejected from the Union Hotel at Kansas City for offensive conduct."
We will venture to guess, his offensive conduct, did not consist in any avowal of abolition principles. He must have been ejected for something else.
LEAVENWORTH & DONIPHAN.—A cor-respondent of the Missouri Statesman, thus speaks of the towns of Leavenworth and Doniphan, both situated on the Missouri river, and about 35 miles apart. The writer says:
"There are quite a number of towns springing up in Kansas, many of them giv-ing some evidence of vitality. Leavenworth we passed in the night and did not see, but it is destined to be the largest town in the Territory. Atchison is well situated by a rock bluff, and is surrounded by a fine coun-try. Doniphan City is the best site I have seen on the river, and is destined to be the largest town after Leavenworth. The proprietors are making but little stir, being confident, I presume, that its natural ad-vantages will bring it into notice. The western bank of the river is much better supplied with town sites than this."

The Election.
In our paper of to-day, we publish the official returns of the election, furnished us by the Secretary. They show that Gen. JOHN W. WHITFIELD, is elected by a very large majority, over all his opponents. We are gratified at the result, for we have a man who is emphatically a pioneer and squatter, intimately acquainted with the wants of this country. He is a western man in feeling and sentiment, and iden-tified with western interests, and possessed of indomitable energy and perseverance.
Gen. Whitfield, is known to be a sound and reliable man, and his position upon all questions of public policy is well under-stood here at home. He entered this can-vass as a National democrat and supporter of the present Administration. In laying down his platform for this contest, he adopt-ed one national and conservative in its character, which will give him a command-ing position for exerting an influence at Washington, in accomplishing much good for the Territory.
In his opening speech here he laid down the Platform upon which he stood, which he said had ever been his principles. Upon that Platform all good and true men, can stand. He stands forth as the advocate of Pre-emptions, and Squatters' rights, fully endorsing the Compromise of 1850, and the principles of the Nebraska bill, and in favor of the people of the Territories settling the question of slavery for themselves. That question, he contended was properly taken from the Halls of Congress, and placed where of right it belonged. While his own views were well understood, on this ques-tion, for he never attempted to conceal them, yet he did not bring them directly in the issue. The platform he laid down, was National and conservative in its character. He was for extending the aegis of the laws and constitution over every man, in the pro-tection of his person and property of every species and kind. He was for equal rights and equal privileges being extended to all classes and from every quarter, and for granting exclusive benefits to none.
Upon this platform and with these princi-ples inscribed on his banner, Gen. Whit-field made the race and was triumphantly elected.
Great Men.
The prosperity of a nation mainly de-pends upon the number, ability, and integri-ty of her Great Men. The history of every nation affords ample testimony of this fact. The mighty Roman Empire owed her greatness, power, and wealth, to such men as Cicero; while Solon, Lycurgus, and De-mosthenes, caused the fame of Greece to resound through the world. On the other hand those States, which were wanting in such powerful auxiliaries, were but puny instruments, only allowed their nationality by the greater nations, who used them as stepping stones to power.
But we see, that those nations, which once stretched their long arms of power over the whole world, have long since, been overtaken by an era of dissolution, and are now known only in history. Time has caused the mighty edifice of national archi-tecture to decay, and crumble into dust, and now their old and feeble bards sing a mournful requiem, over their pristine wealth, and present woe.
Now we seek to know the cause of their downfall. It is, that their prosperity caused the stock of Great men to degenerate.
It is, because these, the pillars of a nation, had lost their integrity.
Such being the case, we are led by a natural impulse, to look to our own country.
Great men we have had, and in point of numbers, and other respects, we are se-cond to no nation, either ancient, or mod-ern. But they are passing away, like giant oaks, which have withstood the rude blasts of many a storm. Now in their old age they await with dignity their approach-ing dissolution, and one by one they bow their venerable heads to the destroyer. Will their number cease, with these who now, old, but yet mighty, figure upon our national stage; No! America's great men have but just begun. Then may we not look forward to the rising among us, of a long line of great men, in every high department of life? Scholars, Warriors, and Statesmen, who will take up the institutions which their forefathers have established, and carry them forward to future ages developed, and confirmed.
Must we believe that the position which we now occupy, as the practical expound-ers of popular sovereignty; that the mission which Providence appears to have assign-ed us, as the teacher of nations in political science, will fail to arouse American minds, and bring upon the stage of action, men equal to the demand? No! There will arise among us, men of principle, men of intellect, who will lead us forward, in the discharge of those duties, which we owe to the God of nations, to ourselves, and to the world.
MISSOURI COURIER.—This is one of the oldest established papers in Missouri, published at the city of Hannibal, the eastern terminus of the Railroad, is offered for sale on accommodating terms. The proprietor, Mr. Brown, is in bad health, which is the reason that induces him to offer to sell. He offers to take $1,400 for the establishment, $400 cash in hand and the balance in 12 and 18 months.
